Hi Paul,
That's OK. We figured that was the case. If I didn't set alarms on my phone I would do the same thing!

Kim is going to save her emails to the CRST on the I: drive DB Tribal consultation folder. She urged the UIC program to have flexibility in our consultation deadline to be consistent with the COVID guidance, in line with what you said in your email last Friday. So we will be sure to convey that message during our DB updated meeting next Wednesday.

I apologize – I completely missed this meeting. It was on my calendar but I overlooked it; it was at the end of the day and I didn't even see it. I can call Kim to get a quick download of the latest about discussions / consultation with CRST, including whether they've requested further tribal consultation since the September 2019 consultation.

Where: Skype Meeting

Hi Kim,

Paul is working on responding to comments and the administrative record for Dewey-Burdock tribal consultation. It would be helpful to have a quick conversation with you to hear about your interaction with the Cheyenne River Sioux Tribe since our September 2019 meeting.

Omar is also helping with this effort so I invited him to join us.

Thanks!
